

Government of the District of Columbia
ZONING COMMISSION

April 25, 1967

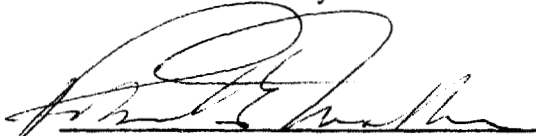

ORDERED:

That after public notice and hearing as prescribed by law, the following amendments to the Zoning Regulations established by the Zoning Commission of the District of Columbia are hereby modified and amended as follows:

Article 75, Miscellaneous Provisions, paragraph 7501.2 shall be amended by deleting the word "(duplicate)".

Article 91, Amendments, paragraph 9101.3 shall be deleted in its entirety and a new paragraph numbered 9101.3 shall be added to read:

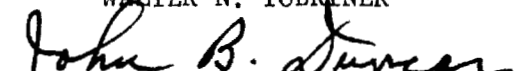

"Proposed amendments hereto, and applications for Article 75 proposals shall be submitted to the Office of the Zoning Commission. The Commission shall adopt a form of application, establish the number of copies, the required supporting data to accompany each application and the time and manner of filing all applications. The Commission may from time to time amend the form of application, number of copies, the required supporting data and the time and manner of filing by announcing at a public hearing and posting a notice of such change in the Zoning Commission Office without any advance notice and without amending the Regulations."
